Section 1c: Information about the hedge funds you advise

Subject to Instruction 5, you must complete a separate Section 1c for each hedge fund that you advise.

Item A. Reporting fund identifying information

18. (a) Name of the reporting fund
 (b) Private fund identification number of the reporting fund

Item B. Certain information regarding the reporting fund

19. Does the reporting fund have a single primary investment strategy or multiple strategies?
 Single primary strategy Multi-strategy
20. Indicate which of the investment strategies below best describe the reporting fund's strategies. For each strategy that you have selected, provide a good faith estimate of the percentage of the reporting fund's net asset value represented by that strategy. If, in your view, the reporting fund's allocation among strategies is appropriately represented by the percentage of deployed capital, you may also provide that information.
 (Select the investment strategies that best describe the reporting fund's strategies, even if the descriptions below do not precisely match your characterization of those strategies; select "other" only if a strategy that the reporting fund uses is significantly different from any of the strategies identified below. You may refer to reporting fund's use of these strategies as of the date reporting date or throughout the reporting period, but you must report using the same basis in future filings.)
 (The strategies listed below are mutually exclusive (i.e., do not report the same assets under multiple strategies). If providing percentages of capital, the total should add up to approximately 100%.)

EU ruling in the Lotte Belgian

On 15 May 2008 the European Court of Justice (CJ) issued its ruling in the Belgian case of Lotte Belgium SA, established in the Marks & Spencer tax case (Case C-220/06). Applying the general principle of proportionality, as set out in Article 7(3)(a), it may be possible for a company to deduct the tax on the losses incurred by permanent establishments.

Climate change and its potential implications

Ernst & Young Australia and the UK Climate Change Task Force have called on the Government to address greenhouse gas emissions through the Emissions Trading Scheme to provide greater business certainty. A new report also highlights the significant financial implications of climate change for business and the potential losses incurred by permanent establishments.

The Importance of taxonomy and tagging

Scenario: UK member firm pushes content to sub-service line 'Capital Markets'. Current state taxonomy can be customised for local market needs.

Issue: The new approved Universal taxonomy may not include 'Capital Markets'

Resulting Action: You will need to work with your Stakeholder to negotiate content items according to the new taxonomy.

The screenshot shows a website interface with a navigation bar at the top. The menu includes 'Perspectives', 'Services', 'Industries', 'About us', 'Media', 'Alumni', and 'Careers'. Under 'Services', there are links for 'Global Home > UK' and 'Overview'. A yellow arrow points from the word 'Capital' in the scenario text to the 'Capital Markets' link in the taxonomy diagram. The taxonomy diagram shows 'Services' branching into 'Advisory' and 'Assurance', each with a list of sub-items. The 'Advisory' branch includes 'About Advisory', 'Our services', 'Actuarial', 'Business advisory', 'Business risk', 'Financial services risk management', 'Fraud investigation and dispute', and 'Technology and security risk'. The 'Assurance' branch includes 'About Assurance', 'Accounting', 'Audit', 'Key performance indicators', 'Technology and security risk', and 'Sustainability assurance and advisory'.
